3. The Inspector-General of Police and the Commissioner of Police are informed that the Government desire—

(i) that depressed classes should be recruited in larger numbers to the lower ranks of the Police Force in accordance with the principle that all communities should as far as possible be represented in the Police force; and

(ii) that notice of recruitment to posts in the Police department for which selection is made by themselves or their subordinates should be published as widely as possible so that the depressed classes may be aware of it.

G. T. H. BRACKEN,
Chief Secretary to Government.

C. No. 1165/Audit of 1933.

Copy communicated to all District Superintendents of Police, Principals of Training Schools and Deputy Inspectors-General of Police for information.
